Staged Presidency Report – Phase II: Timeline of Dismantled Federal Efforts

Objective:
To outline how federal structures and safeguards against human trafficking, foreign infiltration, and financial oversight

Key Findings:

1. Executive Orders and Budget Reallocations (2017–2020):
- January 2017: Key staff across USAID, State Department anti-trafficking, and DHS were reassigned or defunded.
- June 2018: Office to Monitor and Combat Trafficking in Persons (J/TIP) received reduced discretionary funding.
- 2019–2020: Trump ordered repeated budgetary decreases for USAID and State Department trafficking initiatives—m

2. DOJ Obstruction and Untraceable Case Files:
- William Barr limited scope of Southern District of New York investigations tied to Epstein assets.
- Attempts to reclassify specific case files under “ongoing foreign counterintelligence” to block FOIA requests.
- Multiple sealed indictments from 2018–2020 remain inaccessible, likely used as blackmail suppression tools.

3. Disbanding of Oversight Committees:
- Multiple bipartisan trafficking oversight panels were either defunded or absorbed into Homeland Security subgroups
- National Security Council saw substantial staffing shifts, limiting foreign trafficking briefings.

4. Influence Over USAID and NGO Partnerships:
- USAID partnerships redirected toward politically connected contractors.
- Allegations of Epstein-linked shell entities (e.g., through Jean-Luc Brunel’s MC2 links) exploiting redirected funds.

5. Cyber Operations and Narrative Control:
- Trump-era appointees within DHS’s CISA limited disinformation tracking about Epstein and suppressed links on Twit
- Suspiciously timed policy shifts just before Epstein’s 2019 arrest delayed action and media response.

Conclusion:
This phase shows coordinated erosion of federal mechanisms meant to hold human trafficking and elite corruption acc
